from our team

Everyone loves desserts whether it's a birthday cake, frozen treats, cookies and milk, or slice a mom's apple pie after dinner. Often people will associate some of their fondest memories with the people they care about and the food they share. The Circles team has searched for some delectable delights and savory morsels in the Las Vegas area you can thrill your palate with. Be sure to check these places out when you have the munchies.

This issue Circles eats our dessert first with some delicious recipes, songs and games that will make your mouth-water, scrumptious jewelry, local spots that will get your taste buds tingling, we show you how to make a valentine for your sweet heart, paint with candy, and we take you on a journey through our kitchen for some decorating tips with a dynamic duo.

So we hope you saved room for our sweetest issue yet!

Do you love the tasty recipes, great tips, photo spreads, and events that Circles Magazine has in every issue? Want more Circles?
